

Apology Day

Thursday 13th February 2014

Are you looking for an activity that's practical and effective to commemorate one of Australia's most memorable moment in history???

Class Activity

- Watch one of resources suggested below
- Invite the students to reflect on what they heard
- Share their feelings in the group
- Each student write their feelings on a red or yellow ribbon
- Write a short message to Aboriginal people on ribbon
- Place ribbon on school fence spelling out the word "SORRY"
- This will make a wonderful display for the whole community

This activity could be achieved in one period in a primary or secondary setting and all you need is red, yellow and black ribbon the black ribbon is to complete the colors of the Aboriginal flag and little preparation time.
